

Regulations for the online competency test and additional exams conducted in 2026 at the Medical University of Warsaw

1. The entire test duration will be recorded and monitored by the Admissions Board, which reserves the right to invalidate your test if there is suspicion of test fraud.
2. You must be alone, in a quiet and well-lit space. You are not allowed to talk or sing during the test. Your face should be visible during the whole test and must be well-lit. You must be facing the camera, i.e. the camera must not be positioned to the side, too low or too high to record only part of your face.
3. You must not wear any headphones or earphones during the test. You cannot wear a mask or dark glasses during the test. Furthermore, during the exam, you must not wear any form of headwear, including hoods, scarves or hats, unless you wear them daily for religious reasons.
4. You are not allowed to stand up during the test (in other words, you are not allowed to take toilet breaks). Any disturbing movements will result in the invalidation of your test.
5. You cannot use a calculator. Possessing unauthorised items, such as a mobile phone, tablet, MP3 player, other electronic devices or any kind of watch, is a serious offence and could result in disqualification. You must not wear any accessories, bracelets, wristbands or jewellery.
6. You are allowed to use the mobile phone only if contacting the exam administrator in case of technical problems during the test. Before making the call, you must show your cell phone to the webcam and state that you are calling the test administrator.
7. You cannot use any aids or consult resources like textbooks, written notes, etc.
8. You must be on the examination page throughout the entire test. Any attempt to navigate, go outside the exam page, or open other websites or bookmarks in your browser is recorded and may lead to the test being closed, which is considered a disqualification. Your test will be invalidated if you receive three (3) alerts for disturbing behaviour.
9. Disturbing behaviour, an attempt to cheat, cheating, soliciting the help of someone else, or sharing test content through social media during the test, any form of screen capture, recording or copying of the test contents will result in your test's invalidation.
10. The Admissions Board reserves the right to invalidate your test if it deems your webcam is malfunctioning, damaged or impaired if the camera is partially or fully covered during the test, or if your image is obscure.

You are allowed to:

1. Use a white sheet of paper and a pen (or pencil) to make notes. At the beginning of the test, you must show the paper sheet to the webcam. You will have to destroy your notes afterwards.
2. Use the periodic table sent by the University (Print the document). Any time you want to use it – show it to the camera.
3. Consume water from a transparent bottle with no labels during the test.
